Brandywine Crossing is a 230,925 SF community center located in Brandywine, Maryland. The property is anchored by Safeway, and is complemented by shadow anchors Costco, Target, Xscape Theaters and CarMax, which all provide regional draw for the center. Strategically positioned along the area's main thoroughfare, Crain Highway (Route 301), Brandywine Crossing benefits from the exposure to over 82,500 vehicles each day and provides its tenants with half a mile of frontage along the highway. The center is supported by strong demographics that boast a 3-mile average income of approximately $112,000 per household. Furthermore, the population within a 5-mile radius is roughly 58,000 people, and is trending upwards with significant residential developments planned in the surrounding areas that will add to the local consumer density.
