Amberly Place is a beautiful newly constructed, 77,675 square foot, neighborhood shopping center in the highly affluent and rapidly growing Raleigh suburb of Cary, North Carolina. Strategically located near Research Triangle Park, the property is readily accessible to the growing nucleus of residential developments, world-class universities and employment hubs of some of the nation's largest corporations. The center is anchored by Publix, and is complimented by a strong line-up of diverse destination tenants including Mod Pizza, Hey Cream, Mirchi's Indian and Tropical Smoothie. Along with its extensive visibility, Amberly Place is well positioned along Green Level Church Road, a critical connector road to Research Triangle Park, and Carpenter Fire Station Road which is prime for new development in the coming years. The growing west Cary market continues to benefit from consistent population growth over the last 15 years, with over 7,000 new residential units being delivered in the last 18 months or in the planning process, and a strong trade area of over 50,000 people with an average household income over $165,000 living within three miles of the property. Amberly Place is advantageously positioned in the heart of one of the fastest growing trade areas in the greater Raleigh market.
