Vestavia Hills City Center is a premiere 391,899 regional power center within a heavily traveled, dynamic retail market just outside of Birmingham, Alabama - the largest city in the state and economic hub for the southeast. The center is anchored by a diverse tenant mix including Publix, AMC Theatres, Shoe Station, Dollar Tree, and Planet Fitness. In addition, the superior outparcel structures feature first-class national tenants in AT&T, Starbucks, Hand & Stone and a variety of national, regional and local restaurant operators. Vestavia Hills City Center is conveniently located right off Montgomery Highway with signalized access and traffic counts of more than 32,000 VPD.
